

G20 Workshop on Agriculture and Climate Change

September 2nd, 2021

Agenda

September 2 nd , 2021	12:00 – 16:00 (CEST)
10:00 – 12:00	Registration and Cisco System Testing
12:00 – 12:15	G20 Presidency – Welcoming and Opening remarks Graziella Romito Chair of the Agricultural Chief Scientists
12:15 – 14:00	Mitigating the impacts and adapting agriculture to climate change Ismahane Elouafi Chief Scientist - Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations Climate change impact, adaptation and mitigation in agriculture: Actions for building resilient agri-food systems Ana Maria Loboguerrero Rodriguez Research Director for Climate Action at the Alliance of Bioversity International and CIAT Transforming agricultural innovation for people, nature, and climate: taking action research to scale in agricultural Systems Countries' interventions ARGENTINA - Pablo Mércuri Director of the Research Center for Natural Resources - INTA The pathways to carbon neutrality of Agriculture, Forests and Other Land Uses sector in Argentina FRANCE - Jean-François Soussana Vice President in charge of International Policy at the French National Research Institute for Agriculture, Food, and Environment (INRAE) French Research contribution on climate change mitigation and adaptation RUSSIAN FEDERATION - Vera Pavlova Head of the Laboratory of physical and mathematical modeling of agroecosystem productivity and agro-climatic monitoring - Institute of Agricultural Meteorology

	under the Ministry of Natural Resources and Ecology of the Russian Federation. Agro-climatic risks of grain crops cultivation in Russia ITALY - Andrea Taramelli Associate Professor at the University School for Advanced Studies Pavia - IUSS Monitoring climate goals for European agriculture: User perspectives on the Copernicus evolution offer Discussion (3 minutes per intervention)
14:00 – 14:15	Break
14:15 – 15:45	Policies, strategies and tools to make agriculture part of the solution. Ben Henderson OECD Agricultural Policy Analyst Policy solutions to enhance climate change mitigation through agriculture, forestry and other land use Countries' interventions UNITED STATES - Peter Vadas U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) - Agricultural Research Service, National Program Leader for Land and Air USDA research on climate change mitigation and adaptation GERMANY - Claudia Heidecke and Bernhard Osterburg Thünen Institute - Federal Research Institute for Rural Areas, Forestry and Fisheries. Climate mitigation in German agriculture - targets and strategies UNITED KINGDOM - Cheryl Case Deputy Director, International Environment Negotiations Climate Change mitigation and adaptation in agriculture - a UK perspective ITALY - Franco Miglietta Institute of Bioeconomy, IBE-CNR Farming and Mitigation: selected strategies in the Italian research agenda Discussion (3 minutes per intervention)
15:45 – 16:00	G20 Presidency - Closing remarks Graziella Romito Chair of the Agricultural Chief Scientists